General Radiology Technologist
Job Summary

The GENERAL RADIOLOGY TECHNOLOGIST performs diagnostic radiographic services including, but not limited to, positioning, photographing, developing, and providing therapeutic treatment as ordered by and under the direction of the Radiologist. He/she must possess excellent communication skills.

Education: Graduate of Committee on Allied Health Education and Accreditation (AMA) Accredited Radiology Program or equivalent.

Certification by the American Registry of Radiology Technologists or equivalent.

Competency in components of radiology practice as appropriate.

Licensure: Yearly licensure through AART or CRT. Valid state licensure/certification if applicable.

Experience: One-year clinical experience (client facility may waive the one-year experience requirement)

Skills: Requires excellent interpersonal and communication skills. Possess flexibility and the ability to fit in as a team member. Able to function independently.

Credentials: Current CPR (or specialty as ACLS, PALS, etc.)
Current TB screening
Statement of good health
Other screening as required by specific facilities

Transportation: Reliable transportation and valid insurance coverage.

Environmental/ working conditions: Works in various client settings; possible exposure to blood, bodily fluids, and infectious disease. The ability to work flexible schedules to meet client's needs.

This job summary is not meant to be inclusive but rather function as a guideline.
Form updated 9-3-26

Physical/mental effort: Requires prolonged standing, walking and the ability to lift an adult patient. Requires working under some stressful conditions to meet deadlines and patient's needs. Ability to make quick decisions to meet each patient's individualized psychosocial needs.

Additional Qualifications:

1. Provides nursing care while maintaining a safe and therapeutic environment.
2. Documents patients care accurately and completely.
3. Provide quality care that recognizes every patient as an individual, but which also acknowledges that everyone grows and develops in stages that are related to their age.
4. Confirms to client facility and nursing policies/procedures.
5. Complies with the Registry Network policies/procedures.
6. Maintains confidentiality relative to patient care and facilities practices.
7. Communicates information effectively to appropriate personnel to facilitate continuity of care of report changes in patient's conditions.
8. Accepts accountability for own practices.
9. Maintains competency by participating in continuing education programs and meets state specific requirements.
10. Complies with accepted ethical conduct and professional Standards of Nursing Practice as set forth by the American Nurses Association.
11. Speaks, writes, reads, and comprehends the English language.
12. Reacts to change productively and performs other job-related tasks and duties assigned.
13. Administers or assists with administration of contrast media, as required, and consistent with applicable legal restrictions.

Employee Printed Name: _____

Employee Signature: _____ Date: _____

This job summary is not meant to be inclusive but rather function as a guideline.
Form updated 9-3-26